Regulations

1. All exhibitors must be members of The Glasgow Agricultural Society to compete at The National Stallion Show. The current rates for membership are: £15 annual, £120 for ten years. Membership badges will be issued on receipt of membership fees.
2. All entries must be made on a printed copy of the Society's Entry Form. Stock must be bona fide the property of the exhibitor, from the date of entry to the date of the Show. The committee shall have the power at any time to call upon the exhibitor to furnish proof of the correctness of any statement in his/her entry. Should it be proved to the satisfaction of the Committee that any animal has been, with the knowledge of the exhibitor, incorrectly entered or that any detail required in the Schedule have been wilfully withheld, the exhibit thus wrongly entered shall be excluded from the Show or, if it has been admitted to competition, all prize money awarded shall be forfeited.
3. Entries will not be accepted for Clydesdales bred by the judge or bred by the umpire. To clarify this point, if for example, one of the appointed female judges bred an exhibit to be entered in a male class then that entry will be accepted (and vice versa). Entries for geldings bred by the gelding judge will not be accepted.
4. All entry forms and appropriate fees must be lodged with the Secretary on or before 7th February 2026. Entry fees will not be refunded under any circumstances.
5. A First Aid fee of £2 per exhibitor (as noted on the Entry Form) must be paid in addition to entry fees.
6. LATE ENTRIES WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED. UNPAID ENTRIES WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED.
7. If an exhibitor unloads or parks without authority the horses/ponies from that vehicle may be disqualified from competing.
8. If an exhibitor is asked to move their vehicle by any director of The Glasgow Agricultural Society and fails to do so, that exhibitor may forfeit any prize money won that day and may face disqualification. There will be NO CARS ALLOWED in the horsebox park.
9. If the Veterinary Surgeon is required during the Show the owner/exhibitor must report to the Secretary's Office, in The Show Hall. The Society will pay the call-out fee but the owner/exhibitor will be liable to settle any charges for treatment.
10. Horse/pony passports must be available for inspection by officials on request.
11. It is imperative that horses/ponies are washed in the DESIGNATED AREAS ONLY – and not in the Show Hall.
12. If the stock be not of sufficient merit, the judges are entitled to award such prize or prizes as they consider proper.
13. The Show will be under the management of the Committee who shall have the power to decide any dispute which may arise and those decisions shall, in all cases, be final and binding. All stock during the Show will be under order of the Committee, or any person appointed by them. Servants in charge must be in readiness to bring out their stock when called upon, under a penalty of £10 payable by the owner.
14. The Society will not be liable for loss or damage which animals, attendants or visitors may sustain through accident or otherwise at, or in connection with, the Show.
15. Clydesdale exhibitors are asked to note that only ONE HANDLER AND ONE GROOM PER HORSE will be permitted in the judging ring; handlers and grooms MUST wear white coats/jackets.

16. Exhibitors in ALL classes must wear competitor number while in the judging ring.
- 17. NO TALCUM POWDER OR SAWDUST IS PERMITTED IN THE ARENA.
18. All Clydesdales must be shod within the guidelines as specified by The Clydesdale Horse Society.
19. All protests must be made in writing and may be lodged with the Secretary either before or after the judges have proceeded to their duties. The party entering the protest must deposit £50. The deposit will be returned if the complaint is resolved in the complainant's favour. If the protest is lodged before the judges proceed to their duties, the onus of proof will rest with the exhibitor; if after that, the onus will be with the party protesting. No protest will be accepted later than two hours after the prize tickets have been affixed.
20. The decisions of the Committee are final in all questions respecting the interpretation of these Rules, premium conditions and every matter connected with the Show, and it shall not be competent to appeal against such decisions nor seek redress in respect of them from any other tribunal.
21. ALL VEHICLES MUST BE CLEAN AND MUST COMPLY WITH CURRENT DEFRA AND SEERAD BIO-SECURITY RECOMMENDATIONS.
22. The Regulations in the Premium List shall be held to be an addition to and in no way to restrict the Rules of the Society, to all of which exhibitors and visitors must conform, whether members of the Society or not.
23. Exhibitors will be admitted to the Show on production of a member's badge, or on the basis of passes which will be supplied to all exhibitors at the rate of one pass per entry. These passes must be handed to the gate steward. If an exhibitor cannot produce his/her pass at the main gate he/she must pay the admission fee to the gate steward. Provided the appropriate pass is given to the Secretary before 12 noon on the day of the Show the fee will immediately be refunded by the Secretary.
24. The winners of Society trophies are solely responsible for arranging adequate trophy insurance. Trophies must be collected from the Secretary's Office before 4.00 pm on show day
25. Trophies awarded in 2025 must be returned, cleaned and engraved to the Secretary's Office before 9.00 am on the day of the show.
26. Stabling is available at Morris Equestrian Centre and must be booked and paid for using the appropriate booking form. Half of stabling fees will be returned only if the secretary is notified of non-attendance on or before 4th March. A refundable deposit of £10 is payable to the stable manager.
27. HOT WATER – Exhibitors should bring their own hot / cold water for washing horses. Cold water MAY be available but this cannot be guaranteed.
28. Stables are provided for Stallions only. Additional stables are available (see Rule 26 above) and must be booked and paid for at the time of entering .
29. If an exhibitor has entered more than one class and they are being judged at the same time, a decision must be made as to which class is being entered. No class or championship will be delayed for exhibitors to enter both.
30. Neither the Society nor the venue has any obligation to supply power for the use of exhibitors. Exhibitors are welcome to bring generators for their own use.
